ITASCA FUN FACT!

Did you know Itasca once had a hand in Hollywood's biggest night? From 1982 to 2016, RS Owens in Itasca created the iconic Oscar trophies, earning a place in Hollywood history.

While the company no longer produces the Oscars, its legacy lives on in custom awards for prestigious events. So when you watch the Oscars on March 2nd, take pride in Itasca's golden touch on Hollywood history!

CELEBRATING LOVE IN OUR COMMUNITY

This Valentine's Day, let's celebrate not just romantic love but the connections that make our community special. Here are a few ways to spread the love locally:

Support Local Businesses: Order carryout, pick up a treat, or shop locally to show love to our small businesses.

Volunteer Together: Giving back is a great way to share love and make a difference in our community. Consider volunteering at the Itasca Food Pantry, where you can help provide support to neighbors in need.

Explore Our Town: Take a walk through a park or visit the library—appreciate the charm of our community.

Let's take a moment to celebrate the love and kindness that bring our community together. Happy Valentine's Day!
